Perspective(S) Exhibition

March 1 (Friday), 2019

SPACEmeetUp: Tuesday, November 6, Oliver's (2C.17), 5:30-7:30 p.m.

Join us for an art workshop—absolutely no experience required— at the next SPACEmeetUp on Tuesday, November 6. The workshop is inspired by Pointillist artworks and Chuck Close's approach to his hyper realistic works. Afterwards, there will be plenty of time to talk with the S.P.A.C.E. coordinators and your fellow students about any ideas that you have, or projects that you want to pursue. Refreshments will be served. All are welcome.

Other People's Children: Centaur Theatre, Thurs. November 1, 7:30 p.m.

On Thursday November 1, Andrew Katz will be bringing his students to see a play at the Centaur, and all S.P.A.C.E. participants are welcome to join! You can meet with him in New School (8B) at 5:30 or at the Centaur Theatre (metro Place D'Armes) at 6:30. There will be a pre-show and post-show talk and you can pay-what-you-decide, depending on your means. The play, Other People's Children, presented by IMAGO, a feminist theatre company in Montreal, explores mother/parenthood and the ethics of migrant workers.

ArtSPACE visit: Saturday, November 3, Belgo Building, 1:00-3:00 p.m.

The ArtSPACE group will visit the Belgo Building (372 Ste Catherine Street West) for art gallery visits and an artist-studio visit with Dana Velan. Please contact Amanda Beattie if you would like to come along: ABeattie@dawsoncollege.qc.ca

SPACEcorp Activity: McGill Hackathon, November 3-4, Phi Centre

On November 3 and 4, students will participate in the McGill Hackathon, which will take place at the Phi Centre in Old Montreal. The challenge will be to hack a problem whose solution requires the integration of physics, programming, artistic expression and communication.

Maker Faire: Concordia University, November 16-17

In collaboration with Ann Louise Davidson and the Educationmakers at Concordia University, SPACEcorp will contribute to the Montreal Maker Faire experience. The Maker Faire will take place at Concordia. Visitors are welcome.

Émilie Monnet, interdisciplinary artist: Nov. 20, 5B.16, 6:30 p.m.

Émilie Monnet, interdisciplinary artist and founder of Onishka Productions and the event and live-arts platform Indigenous Contemporary Scene, will speak about her artistic practice, her current projects, and her role as a social activist across the cultural spectrum in Montreal. The talk will take place on Tuesday, November 20 at 6:30 p.m. in Room 5B.16.

SPACE Writing Competition: Deadline, Friday, December 21, 2018

Students from every discipline across the College are invited to submit writing that encourages reflection on this year's S.P.A.C.E. theme: Perspective(S). Students can submit in one or more of three categories—prose (fiction or creative non-fiction), poetry, and essay. Further details about the competition can be found on the S.P.A.C.E. website.

Perspective(S) Exhibition: Deadline, Friday, March 1, 2018

Participate in a dynamic exhibition! This year S.P.A.C.E. invites you to explore and share your perspectives on this year's theme, Perspective(S). More details and the link to apply to the exhibition are on the S.P.A.C.E. website.

Share Your Reflections on Perspective(S)

There are many possible perspectives on what a perspective is. S.P.A.C.E. is inviting students across the College to make connections between what they are learning in their classes, what they are seeing and hearing in the world around them, what they are personally passionate about, and this year's S.P.A.C.E. theme: Perspective(S). Read recent reflections by students on the Exploration page of the S.P.A.C.E. website. To consider your own reflection on Perspective(S), please check out the full description of this year's theme. Moreover, if you make a connection to Perspective(S) and might like to share it, MIO any member of the S.P.A.C.E team and we will get back to you.
